Hotel Orrington Donates Overnight Stays to Families of Local Hospital Patients

EVANSTON, Ill. (February, 2007) – Hotel Orrington, located on Chicago’s North Shore, donated 23 rooms to the family and friends of patients staying in Evanston Hospital, St. Francis Hospital and Rush North Shore Hospital this holiday season.

“With help from the hospitals, local newspapers and our community, we were able to put this plan into action,” said Russ Abell, general manager at Hotel Orrington. “There is nothing more important than spending time with your family during the holidays, and hotel bills certainly shouldn’t stand in anyone’s way.”

Organized by the North Shore Convention & Visitor’s Bureau, Hotel Orrington was one of several local area hotels taking part in the effort, donating a combined total of 81 hotel stays between December 11 and 28. Nearly one-third of those rooms were donated by Hotel Orrington.

Hotel Orrington, on Chicago’s North Shore, continues to be the premier locale for upscale parties, bar and bat mitzvahs and glamorous weddings since its opening in 1923. Totally renovated and reopened in 2005, Hotel Orrington also offers meeting planners a new IACC approved Conference Center for meetings from 10 to 300.

Located in the heart of Evanston, Ill., at 1710 Orrington Ave., Hotel Orrington is within walking distance of 186 specialty shops, 72 restaurants, a Red Door Spa, the Northwestern University campus, and beautiful Lake Michigan, and is just 30 minutes from O’Hare International Airport. Hotel Orrington is a member of Preferred Hotels and is managed by Magna Hospitality. Room reservations and event bookings are available via the hotel’s web site at www.hotelorrrington.com or by calling 847/866-8700.
